

THE EXCHANGES INLAND EMPIRE

rebuild. Whether this will be on the site of the old one, or in Boise, he was not prepared to say.—Boise Capital News.

Sheep Firm Quits.

A deal was consummated last week resulting in the transfer of about 6,700 head of sheep belonging to the well known firm of Allen & Lafallett, James Vestal of Big Timber, Mont., being the purchaser.

This sale of sheep leaves the firm of Allen & Lafallett with a large amount of grazing land, which will be disposed of later, when opportunity offers.

The retirement of Allen & Lafallett from active business as a sheep firm marks the passing of one of Crook county's most popular firms.—Prineville Review.

1000 Cattle Sold.

George A. Smyth, Sr., a prominent Diamond valley stockman, was in the city Sunday. He informs us that the French-Glen Co. recently sold 1000 head of fat cattle to the P. L. S. Co., and have gathered another bunch, which they are holding for sale. Mr. Smyth has not turned off any stock this year as the prices offered are low, though he may sell some of the older stock, keeping the others to get age, as he thinks he can make money by wintering them.—Burns Times.

Cattle Must Rustle.

Lake county cattle men are confronted by a serious situation this fall. Owing to the shortage of hay and the discouraging outlook for beef cattle, many of the cattle men will turn their herds upon the desert to rustle for themselves. The experiment is extremely hazardous and a long and severe winter will result disastrously to them.—Ashwood Prospector.

New Turn Verein Building.

R. H. Johnson stated this afternoon that the Turn Verein society expected to tear down the old building on the corner of Main and Sixth streets within a few days, when work would probably be commenced on the new structure.—Boise Capital News.

WOMEN MAY DECIDE.

Possible That They Hold Balance of Power in Four States.

Washington, D. C., Nov. 8.—An interesting feature of today's national election and one, the importance of which is not generally appreciated, is the part played by the women voters in the four states where they exercise the full rights of suffrage. These states are Colorado, Wyoming, Idaho and Utah. The registration of women voters in these states amounted to about 100,000—a number easily sufficient to turn the tide of battle toward either political party.

The labor troubles in Colorado and the Mormon question which is agitating Utah, Wyoming and Idaho, are the two issues in which the women voters have taken keen interest and which are expected to bring out a much larger feminine vote than at any previous election since women were granted the franchise. The result is eagerly awaited at the headquarters in the city of the National American Woman Suffrage Association.

New Lord Mayor Installed.

London, Nov. 8.—Alderman John Pound was formally installed at the Guild hall today as lord mayor to succeed Sir Thompson Ritchie, whose term of office had expired. All the quaint mediaeval ceremonies customary to the induction into office of a chief magistrate were observed, including the presenting of the diamond sceptre, the sword, the city seal and the purse. The annual celebration of Lord Mayor's Day, which is the spectacular feature of the ceremonies accompanying the installation of the new lord mayor, takes place tomorrow in accordance with time-honored custom.

Lord Rothschild is Congratulated.

London, Nov. 8.—Lord Rothschild, the well known banker and financier, celebrated his 63d birthday today. Nathan Meyer Rothschild was born in Piccadilly, London, on November 8, 1842. He is a son of Baron Lionel Nathan de Rothschild, and a grandson of Nathan Meyer de Rothschild of Frankfurt, the founder of the celebrated banking house. He was educated at Trinity college, Cambridge, and was a member of parliament for Aylesbury from 1865 to 1885.

Centenarian Casts His Ballot.

Rockford, Ill., Nov. 8.—Otis Eddy, who recently reached his 100th birthday and who is probably the oldest voter in Illinois, or in this section of the country, was among the early visitors to the polls in Rockford today. The centenarian voter has voted for every whig and every republican candidate for the presidency and in keeping with his record he deposited his ballot today for Roosevelt and Fairbanks.
